ACROSS THE FENCE

Here it is, that wonderful time of the year. Time again to enjoy the lake, whether it be swimming or sailing or just a-sittin' and a-visitin' on the sand. Our pocket size beach sure provides tremendous scope for all ages. Earlier this week I did hear a lady voice some thoughts about teenagers and I suppose due to some recent antics she had every reason for feeling as she did. However, in looking around our beach it was very evident that some of our teenagers are really wonderful young people. Far from being selfish, they are dedicated young men and women who really want to contribute to making this a better place for all of us to share. People like Becky Weaver, Diane Pauli, Janey Zainey and her brother Joe, Bobby and Tommy and Rick. These girls and boys don't come to class and fool around, they come to swim and practice for two solid hours three evenings a week, learn wrestling holds and all the Red Cross methods of saving a life. They are not there to win a badge. Anyone who comes with that idea in mind soon drops out as the rugged and very tiring course continues. These young folk know that the things they learn in class may one day save their own lives and, if necessary, it pledges them to put their own life on the line to save another human being.

The younger children are also turning out three evenings a week to work for the Red Cross Intermediate Swimming certificate. Jerry Mitchell, who is teaching this class, will tell you that there is no behaviour problem whatsoever. Jerry also mentioned that she is enjoying teaching the class this year as the lake water is the clearest she has seen it for quite some time.

See John Trittipio is joining the bearded warriors. (John is growing a rather neat goatee.)

Russ Koehring is driving a new, rather sporty looking Mustang.

VANDALISM --- THEFT

This seems to have become a regular column in the Smoke Signal! Two homes were recently broken into, both in the middle of the afternoon. In one case a color TV and other valuables were stolen. In the other case nothing was stolen, but things were generally torn up. These two instances point up the fact that locking a house is not enough. Only watchful, caring neighbours with a healthy curiosity about strange cars, trucks, "delivery-men", and "workmen" can prevent such things from happening again and again.

BEACH GUARDS

Several of the ladies have consented to spend their afternoons acting as Beach Guards during the week, and on each Sunday or Holiday a husband and wife team will be on duty to cope with the additional beach activity. Each Beach Guard will be wearing a "GUARD" badge for identification so that you can introduce yourself. Please don't be surprised if one of the guards comes over to introduce himself or herself to you. This is the only way in which we can make sure that strangers don't come in to use the beach as they please. Also, it helps if you remember to wear your lake use badge when you come down to the beach.

Remember that you are your own lifeguard. Small children MUST NOT be sent to the beach alone since the beach guards are not legally permitted to act as "life guards". The Beach Guards are there only to see to it that the beach is used according to the rules of common sense as well as the rules which were recently sent to you by the Lake Use Committee of the Association.

Please remember to give your guests badges before they come down to the beach so that they won't have to go back after them. Beach guards have been asked to enforce the lake use regulation regarding guests.

I had a wonderful conversation with a very serious young man, John Johnson. John announced to me that they had a new addition in the Johnson family, which, to say the least, startled me. However, he did go on to say that the new addition was a wonderful black bunny whom they had christened Benny. John also proceeded to give me a very detailed lesson on fishing. He said that his aunt LuAnn, being a girl, found herself a bit squeamish when it came to baiting the hook. Being the gentleman that he is, he takes care of that part of the fishing when LuAnn accompanies him. Sandy (John's mother) travelled to Arizona to visit with her younger sister Linda on the occasion of Linda's engagement. Linda will be returning home and will be married in Eastern Heights Baptist Church, Sunnyside Rd., in the latter part of August.

Cupid surely has been very busy in our neighbourhood! Another young woman getting married in the very near future is lovely, friendly Janeen Denny. Janeen will be married on the 20th of July at the 38th St. Christian Church. To Linda and Janeen and their husbands go our very best wishes for many, many happy years together.

Our belated wishes go to another young lady who has recently changed her name from Miss to Mrs. Marlo Thomas was recently married and we were so sorry that we did not get news of the wedding until our last news sheet had gone to the printers.

We send best wishes to Linda Parsons Gray and hope Linda will send them to her husband in Viet Nam. Linda's husband was wounded in fighting near the D.M.Z. He has recovered and returned to his unit.

More wishes for another young man in Viet Nam go in care of his wife, Becky Israel Arnold.

Another young man that we all know is stationed in Viet Nam near the Ten Sun Nut Air Base. Some of

RUMMAGE SALE

The June Rummage Sale which the Women's Committee held recently was a success in many ways. In addition to the fact that a profit of approximately $115 was made, The Committee was gratified by the co-operation of so many of the lake residents who gave items to be sold. Joan Henry, President, wishes to thank all of the Committee who worked so long and hard to make this a success. Present plans are to hold another Rummage Sale sometime in the fall.

NORTH - SHORE DWELLERS' LAMENT
(Sung to the tune of "Where Have All the Flowers Gone?")

Where has all the trash come from,
Long time floating?
Where has all the trash come from,
Long time a-float?
Trees and logs and sticks and boards,
Washing on our banks?
They've come from other shores;
They've come from other shores.

Who set all the barrels loose,
Long time rusting?
Who threw all the glass and trash?
(Yes, it floats!)
Was it only wind and flood
That made all this mess?
When will they ever learn?
When will they ever learn?

the folk around here have watched Ronnie Heinzen grow up through High School and College. Why not give Sally a call and get Ronnie's address and drop him a card. I know he would really enjoy receiving it and you would feel pretty good yourself for taking the few minutes necessary to send it.

Jack and Althea Kingsbury report that their son, David, has arrived in Saigon ready to be shipped to his hospital unit. We wish him much luck as he starts his tour of duty.

Late news report: Vandal with hack saw cuts through heavy chain on a new motor. Motor not stolen, but dismantled, and parts scattered all around area. Boat not damaged. No clues yet to South Side Beach case of July 5 or 6.

(Ed. Note: This is the second consecutive issue in which we've reported vandalism or theft to boats and motors. What must we do? Post sentries 24 hours a day at all possible approaches to the lake?? Put up heavy gates and tall fences charged with electricity??? Will mere watchfulness keep out looters and vandals?? Is this the work of young vandals?? Or someone more experienced??? Or - awful thought - could this be the hideous prank of someone who LIVES ON INDIAN LAKE??)

TALL TALE TIME

This, the season for much fishing, is also the season for telling tall tales. David Weaver came home with proof of his prowess with a bow and arrow the other day: an 8 pound carp. (This is a good, fun way to catch carp.) Can anyone top David's catch with bow and arrow?

The Zainey brothers shared in the glory of having a picture of their large catch published in the Lawrence Journal. With proof like that, who can say that their Tall Tale is untrue? Can anyone top their 14 pound catfish in the "Below the Dam" section of this contest? (Regular tackle.)

This writer has had no reports of large fish caught in the lake itself. Surely there have been some, so let's get the reports in!

We might also have a Largest Snake section in this contest as well as a Largest Turtle event. So far the Zainey boys are ahead with a 4 ft. black snake killed below the dam.

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR SINCERE SYMPATHY TO ALTHEA KINGSBURY ON THE RECENT DEATH OF HER BROTHER, ROBERT DAY.

A well-deserved "Thank You" to Mr. Edwin French for the clean beach, the new docks, and the repairs.
